

School Community Journal Description and submission information-(updated 11-09)

The school can function as a thriving community. The School Community Journal includes research and field reports related to the school as a community of teachers, students, parents, and staff. Family-school relations, site-based management, homework, sociology of education, systems theory, the classroom community, and other topics are covered. Book reviews are also included.

Editorial Policy and Procedure

The School Community Journal is committed to scholarly inquiry, discussion, and reportage of topics related to the community of the school. Manuscripts are considered in four categories: (1) research (original, review, and interpretation), (2) essay and discussion, and (3) reports from the field, including descriptions of programs, and (4) book reviews. The journal follows the format suggested in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th ed., with titles italicized rather than underlined.

Contributors should send, via e-mail attachments of electronic files (in Word if possible), the manuscript, including a one paragraph abstract of no more than 250 words; a one paragraph description of each author, including current position and research interests; and a mailing address, phone number, fax number, and e-mail address where the author(s) can be reached to:

editor@adi.org

As a refereed journal, all submissions undergo a blind peer review as part of the selection process. Therefore, please include the author's description and other identifying information on a separate page and in a separate electronic file. The cover letter should state that the work is not under simultaneous consideration by other publication sources.

A hard copy of the manuscript is not necessary unless specifically requested by the editor. The mailing address is

Editor, The School Community Journal
121 N. Kickapoo St.
Lincoln, Illinois 62656

Please note: the journal follows the format of the APA Publication Manual, Sixth Edition, which includes new information on how to cite online sources in the reference list. Please make sure electronic links cited are accurate and active.
