

May 2009

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		Activities on the calendar found on: www.oafccd.com/earlyyears/calendar			1 Stop-n-Play at the YMCA Activity Center 9:30-11:30 a.m. (Theme: Summer Sensation) Focusing on Motor Development	2
3 Go outside together. Take a jar to collect bugs.	4 Collect and name the bugs. Have your child name the bugs after you.	5 	6 Chirp like a cricket. Read the book: The Very Quiet Cricket .	7 	8 Stop-n-Play at the YMCA Activity Center 9:30-11:30 a.m. (Theme: Summer Sensation) Focusing on Cognitive Development	9 Have a Spring Clean up day today.
10 	11 Talk about sizes using objects. (ex. Big and little blocks)	12 Sing the Hokey, Pokey; Touch each body part so your child knows which one to stick out.	13 Have your child play with kitchen items such as bowls and containers.	14 Have your child watch you hide their favorite toy. Wait, then ask your child to find the toy.	15 Stop-n-Play at the YMCA Activity Center 9:30-11:30 a.m. (Theme: Summer Sensation) Focusing on Language Development	16
17 Talk with your child as you build and play with blocks.	18 Give your child a crayon and paper. Have them draw to the sound of music.	19 Take turns hiding your child's favorite toy around the house.	20 	21 Have your child imitate you today.	22 No Stop-n-Play today	23 Pretend to be ducks together. Waddle around the house and quack like a duck.
24 	25 Turn on some music that has no words.	26 	27 Stand in front of the mirror with your child. Talk about what is different or the same about you	28 Read a book that has a family in it. Talk about that family and your own family.	29 No Stop-n-Play today	30
31 Pull out the blocks today. Build a house out of blocks with your child.	Please put mark your June 2009 calendars: Summer Reading program at the Lincoln Public Library will begin in June. Go in during the first week of June to sign-up your child/children. If you have any questions about the Summer Reading Program, call the library at (217) 732-5732.					